WHAT IS HOUSING EXCLUSION?

To experience housing exclusion does not necessarily mean to be without a roof over your head. There are different kinds of housing exclusion – anything between rough sleeping and living in a place where you don't have physical and/or emotional safety. And on top of that, we as LGBTIQ+ people have a higher risk of experiencing said housing exclusion.

THIS CAN ALSO BE HOUSING EXCLUSION

When I don't have a rental contract.

When I hide my LGBTIQ+ identity at home, because I am afraid of the consequences.

When I listen to insults about my LGBTIQ+ identity at home.

When I sleep at my friends' houses, because I have nowhere else to go.

When I spend the whole day in the park, because I don't want to be at home.

When living at home makes my mental health worse.

WHAT NOW?

If you think you might be experiencing housing exclusion, do not fear. The SQVOT Programme is your go-to support squad. We understand the unique challenges that can come with being queer and/or having issues at home – be it with your parents, roommates, paying bills or just making sure you have a roof over your head. We are here to offer advice, chat things out and/or be a friendly ear if that is what you need. Plus, we've got your back when it comes to dealing with all the paperwork and nitty-gritty stuff that can make your head spin. We're all about helping you navigate this tricky road, so you can find your way to a safe and secure home.
